ECORISMO Press Release, June 2008

The new ECORISMO Eco-Purchasing Club is gathering in Paris on July 2nd

Since March 2008, the Ecorismo Eco-Purchasing Club has been developing its meetings and actions about sustainable purchasing policies within hotel and restaurant chains and groups. Members are gathering again in palace Hotel Fouquet's Barriere, Paris, on July 2nd.

Why main Purchasing Managers of hotel and restaurant chains are getting together: for issues relative to sustainability within purchasing policies. Next meeting will treat first on hygienic and sanitary eco-products with the contribution of specialists on these products. Then methods will be given to see how to introduce eco-criteria within usual tenders and ways of selecting suppliers.

The Ecorismo Eco-Purchasing Club enables its members:

- to exchange with counterparts about good and bad experiences about sustainable purchasing,
- to get methods in setting up and developing a sustainable purchasing policy,
- to tackle product groups under the environmental and sustainable view on top of usual objectives (prices, distribution, conditioning...).
